This is just a note that I am out for a well deserved vacation to Paris and then off to Turkey. ColdBox will be on my mind, but hopefully for not very long (the wife might beat me up). We will be doing an entire tour of Turkey and visit its majestic locations! We are incredible excited to be able to go and learn about Turkey.

Paris is just a stop over, so we will only have two days to drink the wine, eat the croissants and visit the sites. Ahh paris!!

Anyways, please don't bother me, no development for 2 weeks, wohoo!!

Thanks!!

Luiz, Happy Birthday ! Enjoy your vacation. When you get to Paris, if you want to have the best filet mignon with fries in town, go to the restaurant "Le Entrecote" at the Champs Elisees, not expensive at all. Take lots of photos. Have fun. Ricardo.
